Development Focus

World Bank

Financing the Post-2015 Agenda: Toward a Shared Vision

The 2014 IMF-World Bank Group Annual Meetings provided the perfect opportunity for finance and development ministers, the private sector, civil society, and multilateral development banks (MDBs) to discuss how to strengthen and leverage their financing frameworks to support the post-2015 agenda, also known as the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). (Read More)
World Bank and Islamic Development Bank Join Forces to Improve Quality and Relevance of Education

The World Bank Group and the Islamic Development Bank announced an agreement today to coordinate efforts on education. (Read More)

Millions of Mothers and Children in Myanmar to Benefit from New World Bank Financing

The World Bank’s Board of Executive Directors today approved a US$100 million credit from the International Development Association (IDA) to improve maternal, newborn and child health in Myanmar. (Read More)

Goal

Over its 4-year period, the project is expected to benefit approximately 4 million pregnant women and their young children across all of Myanmar’s 330 townships in all states and regions.
The Asian Development Bank and the Inter-American Development Bank Launch Staff Exchange Program

Asian Development Bank (ADB) and Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) formalized a staff exchange program between the two Banks. This program will broaden and deepen the longstanding collaboration between the two institutions. (Read More)

Do you know?
To strengthen our understanding of the overall development and operating strategies of international aid agencies, and to deepen exchange with such organizations, TaiwanICDF have dispatched personnel for secondment to the Central American Bank for Economic Integration and to similar organizations.

Thomson Reuters Foundation and FAO launch global food security news platform
The Thomson Reuters Foundation and the UN Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) today launched a comprehensive global news platform dedicated to food issues. (Read More)
The Asian Development Bank and the Inter-American Development Bank Launch Staff Exchange Program

Asian Development Bank (ADB) and Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) formalized a staff exchange program between the two Banks. This program will broaden and deepen the longstanding collaboration between the two institutions. (Read More)

Do you know?

To strengthen our understanding of the overall development and operating strategies of international aid agencies, and to deepen exchange with such organizations, TaiwanICDF have dispatched personnel for secondment to the Central American Bank for Economic Integration and to similar organizations.

Thomson Reuters Foundation and FAO launch global food security news platform

The Thomson Reuters Foundation and the UN Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) today launched a comprehensive global news platform dedicated to food issues. (Read More)